

WATER EDUCATION ARWA STYLE

The Alabama Rural Water Association Conducted Many Surface & Groundwater Educational Demonstrations throughout 2012

George Marodis, Kathy Horne & Jim Harris Conduct Enviroscope Demo at the ADEM on Earth Day

The ARWA helps with the Edible Aquifer Activity at the Barbour County Groundwater Festival

The ARWA Conducts a Groundwater Demo at Lake Side School in Eufaula, Alabama

Groundwater Model Demonstration at Hayden Elementary School in Blount County, Alabama

Enviroscope Demonstration on the banks of the Beautiful Locust Fork River in Blount County, Alabama

Groundwater Model Demonstration at Straughn Elementary School Covington County, Alabama

Kathy Horne, Executive Director of the ARWA helps with the Filtration Activity at the Monroeville Water Festival in Monroeville, Alabama

William Snyder, General Manager of the Monroeville Water Works, helps with the Edible Aquifer Activity at the Monroeville Water Festival

Mark Bohlin, General Manager of the Perdido Bay Water, Sewer & FPA talks to fourth graders about the importance of groundwater protection and conservation at the Elberta Elementary School

Groundwater Model Demonstration at JU Blacksher Elementary School in Uriah, Alabama

Edible Aquifer Demonstration Coffee County Groundwater Festival